GRAIN AND PROVISIONS.

CHICAGO PRODUCE.

CHICAGO, January 17.—Another severe break in wheat occurred during the middle session to-day, which proved staggering to the "bull" interest, supplementing as it does, the repeated and heavy drops of the past week. At the closing on "change yesterday the tendency was stronger, and May had run up close to 90c, and the "bulls" appeared confident that the tide had turned in their direction. Without premonition and no known influence, May wheat dropped rapidly this morning until at 11:30 it had touched 86c, the lowest point yet at which sales have been made. Most strenuous efforts could not revive any particular strength into the market. At noon May option had crept up to 90c and showed some steadiness. February wheat sold as high as 91c, but fell off to 89c, and shortly after the noon hour was quotable at 89@90c. Corn weakened in sympathy with wheat and May sold down to 87c, or 1@ under the closing price yesterday. February sold down to 52c, and showed little strength. Oats fell off to 8@9c. May selling down to 36c, February 32c. Pork declined 32c, May 28c. Beef—Steaks—Firm. Whisky—Firm at 14.
